Project Description (Proposed actions, location, and/or consequences).

The project is located on an approximately 1.21 gross acre site.

Identify the project's significant or potentially significant effects and briefly describe any proposed mitigation measures that would reduce or avoid that effect.

Impact: Hazardous materials associated with past and current use of the site could be encountered during construction activities, and the slurry wall designed to contain existing contaminants associated with the Fairchild Semiconductor Corporation South San José Plant Superfund Site could be encountered during excavation.

Mitigation: (1) Applicant will conduct shallow soil sampling and obtain regulatory oversight if samples exceed the RWQCB environmental screening levels and prepare and implement required plans. (2) Applicant shall notify RWQCB of slurry wall field verification schedule and perform any additional investigation, evaluation, or mitigation, as required by the RWQCB.

If applicable, describe any of the project's areas of controversy known to the Lead Agency, including issues raised by agencies and the public.
